

WT 30-EP

Hand-guided thermoplastic applicator with electric glass bead dispenser

WT 30-EP

| Maschine type                      | Hand-guided thermoplastic applicator WT 30-EP                                              |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Drive                              | hand guided                                                                                |
| Tyres                              | 3-fold solid rubber, d=200 mm, on request pneumatic tyres                                  |
| Working width                      | for marker units up to 30 cm                                                               |
| Heating                            | infrared heaters                                                                           |
| Glass bead equipment               | metering bead dispenser up to 30 cm (shiftable), with electrically driven accelerator roll |
| Empty weight                       | approx. 122 kg                                                                             |
| Dimensions Length x width x height | approx. 1,00 m x 0,80 mm x 1,00 mm                                                         |

Technical modifications and errors excepted, illustrations similar resp. partly including special accessories.

State of art: 01.11.2014_en